Dear RAIMUNDO RUBEN AVILA,

We registered you as the agent for MIRIAN N AVILA DE GOMEZ's immigrant visa case: GYQ2012730003. Go to our website at <http://nvc.state.gov> for English or <http://nvc.state.gov/espanol> for Spanish and work with the applicant to complete steps two through six of the NVC process:

- Step 2: Pay fees
- Step 3: Submit visa application form
- Step 4: Collect financial documents
- Step 5: Collect supporting documents
- Step 6: Submit documents to NVC

Included with this letter is the Immigrant Visa Fee invoice(s). For instructions on paying this fee, go to nvc.state.gov/fee for English or nvc.state.gov/tarifa/espanol for Spanish. If you are unable to submit payment online, please contact NVC to arrange for an alternate payment method. If you did not receive an Immigrant Visa Fee Invoice for any applicant who should be on this case, do not submit a fee payment for the applicant. Instead, contact NVC and we will help you. You can find our contact information at nvc.state.gov/ask for English or nvc.state.gov/ask/espanol for Spanish.

Important Notes:

- If the applicant is living in the United States and intends to adjust status with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) rather than pursuing an immigrant visa, please contact NVC before taking further action or making any payments.
- Depending on the visa category, applicants who reach age 21 after a petition is approved by USCIS may become ineligible for an immigrant visa. However, there is a federal law called the Child Status Protection Act (CSPA) that allows some people to apply for a visa as a child even after they turn 21. If applicable in this case, NVC will conduct a preliminary assessment of eligibility for this CSPA benefit.

After you complete the steps above, we will review the forms and documents you submit to us. If something is missing or incorrect, we will tell you how to fix it. Otherwise, we will schedule this case for a visa interview at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate in GUAYAQUIL, ECUADOR.

Sincerely,

United States Department of State

How to Contact the National Visa Center

If you have any questions about your case you can contact us by email or by phone.

Email NVC's Public Inquiry form is located on our website at nvc.state.gov/ask.

Phone 603-334-0700
Customer service representatives can speak with you Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight (EST).

When you contact us we will need this information to answer your questions:

- NVC case number or USCIS receipt number;
- Principal applicant's name and date of birth; and
- Petitioner's name.
- If your visa petition is employment based, include the employer's company or organization name instead of the petitioner's information.

One-Year Contact Requirement

U.S. law requires immigrant visa applicants to apply for a visa within one year of availability. Section 203(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) requires the U.S. Department of State to terminate the visa application of anyone who fails to apply for an immigrant visa within one year after notification that a visa number is available. Therefore, if you do not respond to notices from the National Visa Center within one year you risk termination of your petition under this law and could lose the benefits of that petition, such as your priority date. To avoid termination of your visa application, make sure you contact NVC at least once a year.
